DICKINSON WENT THROUGH OUR FACTS LIKE GATLING GUN

"The Fourth of July was a great day for Hawaii," said Acting Governor E. A. Mott-Smith this morning, "for Secretary of War Dickinson was here. And he went through local facts like a gatling gun. What he didn't observe could not have amounted to very much. I was with him all the time. In fact, I saw little of anybody else. We will very soon feel the effects of the visit of the secretary of war. We felt quickly the effects of the visits here of Secretary of the Interior Garfield and Immigration Commissioner Straus, and Hawaii will before long notice the benefits of Dickinson's visit."

"Secretary Dickinson inquired most particularly as to what Hawaii can produce; about the intensified cultivation of sugar; concerning pineapples, cotton, and vegetables; concerning the cost of fresh beef here, and the cost of canned goods, all matters of interest to the war department when it comes to the maintenance of an army. He was also interested in corporation taxation and in our elections, our local government, schools and health department."

"The result of his visit, in my opinion will be the facilitation and acceleration of the military works here, for he has had a glimpse of the ground and will determine matters quickly which would require a long time to settle by correspondence."

"His secretary, Clark, took copious notes wherever we went, from fortification to fortification and elsewhere. I hope to see Secretary Dickinson in Washington in November."

MAN FROM HAWAII IS HELD BY CABLE; MAY BE MISTAKE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Tin Soon, or Thomas Elder, as he declares his name to be, was arrested here today aboard the steamship Sierra, just arrived from Honolulu. He is held on orders from High Sheriff Henry, of Hawaii Territory, the charge against the man at present being unknown. Soon, alias Elder, claims that he has been falsely arrested and that his detention is a case of mistaken identity.

High Sheriff Henry this morning received a cable from the San Francisco chief of police, asking for a description of the man wanted, and Henry at once cabled the description. Henry is by no means certain that the right man has been arrested. The man wanted is Tin Soon, who was serving an indeterminate sentence for larceny. Tin Soon escaped from the prison gang early last week, and according to wire, was aboard the Sierra.

MASONIC FUNERAL FOR G. C. BECKLEY

Bruce Cartwright, who holds a power of attorney for the late George C. Beckley, who died in San Francisco yesterday morning, received a cable from Mrs. Beckley asking that arrangements be made for a Masonic funeral.

Mrs. Beckley and Miss Beckley with the body, leave San Francisco tomorrow on the Wilhelmna which is due here on July 12.

Mr. Cartwright stated this morning that he had not yet made any definite arrangements for the funeral and would not be able to do so until Mrs. Beckley arrives next week.

The late Mr. Beckley was a thirty-second degree Mason and was a member of Pacific Lodge, where the funeral services will be held.

A number of old friends of the deceased will probably officiate as pallbearers.

KUHIO HOPES PROPERTY OWNERS WON'T HOLD UP THE GOVERNMENT

Acting-Governor Mott-Smith is in receipt of the following from Delegate Kalaniana'ole:

June 22, 1910.

Hon. E. A. Mott-Smith, Acting Governor of Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—Referring to your two cablegrams I would say that the authorization of $350,000 additional for the purchase of the remainder of the Mahuka block was made by transferring that amount from the sum already authorized for the public building. This was done in order not to increase the total of the bill this year, but it was done with the distinct understanding that that amount will be re-appropriated for the building in next year's bill.

We have already interviewed the Treasury Department in regard to speedy action in securing this property, and they advise us that the sum of $200,000 is already available and that all the remainder can be added to the urgent deficiency bill in December, which will be as early a date as the titles can be passed upon. In other words, the entire sum will be available as rapidly as it can be used.

In view of the great liberality with which the government has treated Honolulu in giving us these large sums for a building and site, I trust that public sentiment will not permit of having any exorbitant prices placed on any of this property. The government wants to pay what the property is actually worth, but it ought not to have to pay any more than its fair valuation, which ought not to be very much more than the taxation value.

We feel here a great deal of satisfaction over having gotten this last matter through and I hope it will be appreciated in Honolulu as making possible a monumental public building with an adequate and well placed location in the very heart of the city.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. K. KALANIANA'OLE,
Delegate to Congress.

JUDGE LYMAN DEAD

HILO, July 5.—Rufus A. Lyman, Senior, died at his home here today.

Judge Lyman was one of the grand old men of Hawaii. He was one of the resident circuit judges on the island of Hawaii when the Supreme Court justices used to hold the jury terms in all the circuits of the islands. A member of one of the old missionary families, he was a useful and an exemplary citizen. Quite recently Judge Lyman served on the Federal jury in Honolulu. His venerable figure will be greatly missed at the capital, where he was a frequent visitor, as well as in his home city.

Judge Lyman was a son of Rev. David B. Lyman, who founded the Hilo Boys' School in 1836, which is today one of the leading institutions of this Territory, combining industrial training with ordinary education. The oldest son was Henry Lyman, author of "Hawaiian Yesterdays," a most interesting book on old times in modern Hawaii.

David B. Lyman, named after his father, is another brother of the man now mourned. He is a wealthy lawyer and real estate broker of Chicago and was present at his brother's death bed, having hurried from here to Hilo last Tuesday after landing on his native Hawaiian soil after an absence of fifty years. Frederick Lyman of Hilo is another brother, also at one time a judge, who is now in poor health. The youngest brother Francis, is a partner of David in Chicago. He married Miss Dana, daughter of the author of "Two Years Before the Mast." A sister of Judge Lyman married Samuel Wilcox of Kauai.

Mrs. Lyman, who was a Brickwood, died some years ago. There is a large family surviving Judge Lyman. Kamehameha V was a great friend of his, owing in part probably to the high family connections of Mrs. Lyman. Fred Lyman, foreman of Lowers & Cooke's lumber yard in Honolulu, is a nephew of the deceased.

CAMPBELL ACCEPTS

A. J. Campbell, the well known stock broker and ex-treasurer of the Territory, has accepted the offer of the Territorial Board of Immigration to go to Portugal and the Azores for the purpose of bringing more Portuguese to Hawaii. Mr. Campbell will probably leave on the Korea on or about the 6th of August and will proceed immediately to Madeira and the Azores where he will look over the labor situation.

The route to be taken, the number to be brought and other details will be left entirely to Mr. Campbell who has full authority from the board to act as he sees fit.

The house flags and ensigns on all the Inter-Island boats are half-masted today in honor of the late George C. Beckley who was purser for many years on the steamer Kinau.
